Sensible Order of Gen. Hunter on the Use of the Bayonet.

Headquarters Department of the South,
Hilton Head, Port Royal, S. C., Aug. 15, 1862.

[General Order, No. 24.]
The Major General commanding desires to call the attention of all regimental in- fantry officers in this department to the paramount importance of fastidiously

commanding with the manual of the bayonet.

Our soldiers should be instructed in regard to the proper use of this weapon as their greatest assurance of safety, and most cer- tain means of success in every struggle.

The bayonet should be constantly placed before them as the decisive weapon of every battle; not merely as a useful accessory or means of support to artillery, musketry,

and the sabres of cavalry, but as the chief and final arm of the service, to which all others are subordinate. They should be taught that, on the battlefield, whilst irresolution or inactivity will cost them the decision by repeated volleys from the rifles and other firearms of the enemy, a vigorous charge, promptly executed and in good order, will expose them to but one vol- ley, with immediate victory as its result.

It is in bayonet charges that the superiority and higher intelligence of our stalwart soldiers over the enemy can make itself felt.

They should be taught this truth—that with bayonets properly handled by obedient regiments we are invincible; and their attention should be strongly drawn to the other fac- t—that bayonets, except in isolated cases,

never come in actual collision—the side possessing superior weight and discipline, and which rushes forward determined that nothing but death shall stop it, invariably breaking the morale of the enemy before reaching them, and even disorganizing the one volley before the foe may fire, or attempt to fire, before turning in flight. All portions of the bayonet exercises are im- portant—not that man in actual conflict can assume all the attitudes and perform all the motions prescribed in the manual; but because the familiarity with the weapon thus acquired, gives them confidence and mastery in its use. In such hours of drill as the climate will permit, regimental infantry officers will develop the most atten- tion to this subject, and the proverbial truth will be impressed upon the men, in refer- ence to the bayonet charge, that "from the nettle danger, we pluck the flower safely."

In all reviews and inspection of troops

hereafter to be held, the Major General commanding will scrutinize with special care the proficiency of all infantry re- giments, and regiments serving as infantry, in the manual of the bayonet.

The Battles of Virginia.

Our reports of the battles Friday and Saturday are meager, and awaken an intense eagerness to hear more minute details. Gen. Pope seems to have driven the enemy Friday, and renewed the attack Saturday in the expectation of receiving aid. This aid failed to reach him in season, and he fell back to Centerville, pressed by the enemy, who had been strongly reinforced. After reaching Centerville he was also reinforced, and he took a position where either defensive or offensive movements could be adopted. The fact that there was no general attack yesterday is an encouraging feature, and is evidence that the enemy, who are making desperate efforts against us before the new troops shall arrive, was too severely crippled to risk another engagement. There seems to have been a panic in our army on Saturday, which was only prevented from becoming a complete rout by the firmness and good generalship of Sigel.

The rumor in relation to Gen. Banks we hope will prove unfounded.

The contradiction of the report that Gen. McClellan had not been appointed to the command of the army of Virginia, is a hopeful augury. He will be subordinate to Gen. Pope if his division is united with Gen. P.'s in any coming conflict in that quarter.

Organization of New Regiments.

The 28th is assigned six companies from Waukesha and four from Walworth. Hon. B. Hinkley of Waukesha is colonel, Chas. Whitaker, do., Lt. Col., and E. B. Gray of Walworth major.

The 31st is made up from Crawford, Grant, Iowa, Lafayette and Green. I. E. Messmore colonel, F. H. West Lt. Col., J. B. Clowney major.

The 23d is to be commanded by Jas. H. Howe, the present attorney general of the state.

The 33d regiment is made up principally from Kenosha and Walworth counties.—Jonathan B. Moore of Grant county has been announced as its colonel; he is the present sheriff of Grant county. Hon. F. S. Lovell, of Kenosha, late speaker of the assembly, is Lt. colonel.

The 29th regiment, made up from Dane Dodge and Jefferson counties, will be commanded by Chas. R. Gill of Watertown, colonel; G. T. Thomas of Jefferson Co., Lt. Col.; W. A. Green, of Jefferson Co., Major.

We have no information of the assignment of the Rock county companies, except those in Col. Utley's regiment, the 22d.

WISCONSIN IN THE BATTLE.—The 2nd, 3rd, 6th, 6th and 7th Wisconsin regiments are in the vicinity of the recent battles, and a portion, if not all, have been engaged in some of them. Sorrowful tidings of wounds and death will soon be borne to many homes throughout the state.

Gov. MOORE IS DANGER.—Gov. Thomas O. Moore, the chief magistrate of the state of Louisiana, made his appearance last week in Thibodaux last week, on business. The moment the fact became known, the people turned out to mob and murder him. Many people were armed. He begged for mercy, and still but for four women who surrounded him, he would have been shot. The people detested him on account of his cotton-burning and sugar destroying order.—N. O. Delta, Aug. 18.

SEVERE FIGHTING!

Gen. Pope Falls Back to Centerville.

Reinforced by Sumner and Franklin.

PARTICULARS OF THE BATTLES.

WASHINGTON, 30th.

The following is just received:

QUARTERMASTER OF THE ARMY, Sept. 30th.

To Maj. Gen. Halleck, General-in-Chief:

We fought a terrific battle here yesterday with the combined forces of the enemy, which lasted with continued fury from daylight until after dark, by which time the enemy was driven from the field, which we now occupy. Our troops are too much exhausted to push matters, but I shall do so in the course of the morning, as soon as Fitz John Porter's corps comes up from Manassas. The enemy is still in our front, but badly used up.

We have lost not less than 8,000 men, killed and wounded, and from the appearance of the field the enemy has lost two to our one. The enemy stood strictly on the defensive, and every assault was made by ourselves. Our troops have behaved splendidly. The battle was fought on the identical battle field of Bull Run, which greatly increased the enthusiasm of our men.

The news has just reached me from the front that the enemy is retreating towards the mountain. I go forward at once to see.

We have made great captures, but I am not able to form an idea of their extent.

JOHN POPE, Maj. General.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.

It is not true, as stated, that Gen. McClellan has been appointed or placed in command of the federal forces in Virginia. Maj. Gen. Halleck is commander-in-chief, and Maj. Gen. McClellan, Pope and others are in command of the respective divisions.

FALMOUTH, Va., Aug. 29.

The evacuation of Fredericksburg by our forces has been effected, in accordance with the military plans. The bridge across the river has been blown up, as also was the iron foundry at Fredericksburg, which was made by our forces for military work.

Gen. Burnside notified all persons at Fredericksburg who wished to avail themselves of Union protection, seasonably, that they might come away, and numbers did so. The editor of the Fredericksburg Banner brought away his printing material. The road from Fredericksburg to Aquia Creek presented a curious spectacle to day, overflowing as it was with the great amount of freight of various sorts seeking a passage. Boxes, trunks, barrels, suiters' stores of all kinds, broken vehicles and dead horses are piled and tumbled by the roadside everywhere. Whenever a breakdown of a wagon occurred, the horses were removed and the wrecked material dumped out in the road to take its chances. Our troops were in good spirits, and expect great things in the way of Union successes.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.

The Pacific was successfully launched at noon. Over six thousand troops have left the city to day, including recruits for old regiments.

Today the new steamship San Juan, belonging to the Central American Transit Company, left for San Juan del Norte and the lake of Nicaragua, under command of Capt. Geo. B. Slocum. She carries a large number of officers and engineers for service for the other lake steamers and on the river boats of the new Nicaragua.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.

Information has reached Washington from private sources that Gen. Pope came up with and attacked the enemy again shortly after nine o'clock this morning. Gen. Fitz John Porter had probably arrived on the field by that time from Manassas, only seven miles. The cannonading was distinctly heard in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.

To-day's Evening Star, speaking of Friday's battle, says it was continued by the corps of Heintzelman, McDowell and Sigel, against the rebels, numbering about 60,000, consisting of Jackson's and a portion of Lee's army, which succeeded in getting from White Plains through Thoroughfare Gap. The battle took place in the vicinity of Haymarket, off in the direction of Sudley Court House, and but a few miles north-west of Bull Run.

Heintzelman's corps came up with the enemy's rear about 10 o'clock a. m., seven miles from Centerville, and found Stonewall Jackson fighting with McDowell or Sigel, or both, on the right. Our information is that the rebels, though continuous, had not been very bloody. Others represent, who left the field at four o'clock, that the result was decidedly in favor of the Union army. We pushed the enemy successfully on both sides. An impression prevailed that the reserve of Lee's army, supposed to be from twenty to thirty thousand strong, might suddenly appear on the field. The railroad had already been repaired to Bull Run, and supplies were being transported there.

Before evacuating Manassas, the rebels paroled 700 Union prisoners. This included 600 of Taylor's brigade, and stragglers.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.

Gen. Pope's conduct is highly praised in government and other quarters. Nearly 1000 government clerks repaired to the battle-field to attend to the dead and wounded on both sides. Gen. Wadsworth took all the hacks here and sent them to transport the sick and wounded.

The following is gathered from private sources:

Tuesday night report reached Warrenton Junction that Jackson was again in our rear, and had taken possession of the railroad near Bratlow, four miles north of Manassas, and burned the railroad bridge. The advantage, on the whole, was with the enemy, and Pope fell back to Centerville with his whole army in good condition, and has been joined by Sumner and Franklin. He occupies the strongest position in the vicinity of Washington, and is expected promptly to renew the contest. Every of-

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.

Private advices from Fredericksburg up to 3 P. M. yesterday, contradict the report regarding the burning of bridges and the destruction of property in that locality. Burnside had possession there at 3 P. M. yesterday.

Thirty-three wagon loads of hospital stores left here yesterday for the battle-field. A number of physicians have also gone.

fort should be used to hasten forward new troops.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 30.

Heavy firing heard to-day in the direction of Centerville. Telegraphic communication has been re-established to Manassas. There are still large numbers of troops in Alexandria, awaiting transportation to the battle field.

There is intense anxiety here to get the particulars of the recent fights, but our reports are so indefinite as not to justify repetition.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.

Pope's statement that Heintzelman's corps would move on the enemy at daylight is confirmed by heavy firing from that vicinity. Rumors of various successes reach us, but need confirmation. Yesterday, rebel scouts were seen at Langley's, near Chain Bridge. Every precaution is taken to prevent surprise. Gen. Schenck was severely wounded in the right wrist, yesterday.

WASHINGTON, August 31.

Dispatches received this afternoon indicate that there has been little if any fighting to day. Our army is well posted, and our men are in good condition and spirits.

OFFICIAL WAR GAZETTE.

WAR DEPARTMENT, August 30.

General Burnside commands his own corps, except those temporarily detached and assigned to General Pope. General McClellan commands that portion of the army of the Potomac that has not been sent forward to General Pope's command. General Pope commands the army of Virginia and all the forces temporarily attached to it. The forces are under command of General Halleck, General-in-Chief.

E. D. TOWNSEND, A. A. Gen.

PHILADELPHIA, August 31.

The excitement is intense throughout the city, mingled with a feeling of depression caused by meagre accounts of the battle. The incomplete regiments have been consolidated into five regiments.

MADISON, Aug. 30.

The following notice is given by the Governor:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, Madison, Aug. 30, 1862.

By authority of the Secretary of War, I hereby give notice that volunteering for old regiments will continue till September 15th.

Advance pay and bounty will be paid as before. I earnestly urge all counties which have not filled their quota, including the special call for old regiments, to do so at once by volunteering before the above date.

EDWARD SALOMON, Governor of Wisconsin.

DUSTON, Aug. 31.

The excitement here equals that which followed the Bull Run fight last year. A large quantity of hospital stores have left for Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31—10 P. M.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The following is a partial list of the killed and wounded western officers in the latest engagements—unofficial, of course: Brig. Gen. Schenck of Ohio, struck by a Minnie ball in the right wrist—amputation probably necessary; Brig. Gen. Coulter killed; Brig. Gen. Hatch of Massachusetts killed; Brig. Gen. Buford of Illinois killed; Brig. Gen. Robinson wounded; Col. Roberts of the 2d Michigan, successor of Col. Wilcox, the lately released prisoner, killed; Colonel Henderson of the 7th Pennsylvania reserves wounded; Col. Farnsworth of the 8th Illinois cavalry wounded; Col. Cantwell of the 51st Ohio killed; Colonel of the New York Highlanders wounded; Col. Sol. Meredith of Indiana wounded; Col. Fletcher Webster of Mass., son of Daniel Webster, fatally wounded and taken prisoner; Colonel Kater of Philadelphia killed; Adjutant Phelps, 10th Penn. reserves, wounded; Brig. Gen. Stahl of New York killed; Col. O'Connor, 2d Wisconsin, killed; Maj. May, 29th Indiana, killed; Lieut. Col. Dragg, 5th Wisconsin, wounded.

Cairo, Aug. 31.

Gen. Curtis arrived this morning from Helena, attended by his staff and body guard. He left at noon for Chicago to attend the meeting of the Pacific railroad commissioners.

There is no truth in the report industriously circulated by pro-slavery prints, that he has been superseded. He was relieved at his own request by the secretary of war. During his administration in Arkansas he has manumitted at least 3000 slaves. His successor is Gen. Steele.

The Von Phul arrived from Memphis this morning, and brings but little news worthy of telegraphic mention.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 31.

On Friday afternoon, the rebels, beyond Richmond, Ky., drove in our cavalry. Gen. Mansson, with the 6th and 71st Indiana, moved up, and after throwing a few shells the enemy retreated rapidly beyond Rogersville, leaving one gun behind. Mansson bivouacked for the night. On Sunday morning Mansson advanced with two regiments and four guns, and coming up with the enemy, an artillery fight began, with heavy loss on both sides, the enemy attempting to turn our left flank, when sharp fighting occurred between the skirmishers. The 6th Indiana advanced through a dense fire of shot and shell to the relief of our skirmishers, and behaved like old soldiers, but the rebels finally turned our left flank and advanced in full force on our column. Mansson then ordered a retreat and fell back three miles, reformed line of battle on the high hills, got his artillery in position on the right and left flanks, the firing by artillery recommenced and was kept up briskly on both sides. After fighting about two hours, the enemy advanced on our right flank under cover of woods, and after severe fighting succeeded in turning it. A retreat immediately took place to the original camping ground.

Here Gen. Nelson came up, and, after great efforts, succeeded in rallying the men, and formed another line of battle. Our artillery and ammunition being nearly exhausted, and some guns left without a man to work them, all having been killed and wounded. Nelson was wounded at about 2 P. M., when the men fell back, retreating to Lexington. The enemy numbered about 15,000 to 20,000. The federal forces on the 30th were the 95th Ohio, 12th, 16th, 65th and 7th Indiana, and Mundy's and Matlock's cavalry. The loss in killed and wounded is heavy on both sides; the number not yet known. Lt. Col. Topping and Major Knuckle of the 21st Indiana are both killed. Gen. Wright left this morning to join him. A large number of regiments are en route to Lexington.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 31.

Surgeon McDermond reached the city this evening from Richmond, and reports 125 killed and 350 wounded in yesterday's battle. He obtained permission from Gen. Kirby Smith to come here for a supply of medical and hospital stores. Lieut. Col. Stout, Col. McMillan, and Major Drumbrack, and fifty-two others of the 95th Ohio, are wounded. Major Conklin is wounded, and Col. Lucas is killed. An equal number of the confederates are killed and wounded.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 31.

A Bowling Green dispatch says, that a large rebel force, under Buckner, is at Tompkinsville. The rebels destroyed the telegraph to-day, at the State line, thus cutting off communication with the Nashville. Gov. Morton, and suit, arrived at the Galt House, this evening. There is considerable excitement in the city.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 31.

Last night the bells were rung and all male citizens were ordered out and slept on their arms.

Major Generals Wright and Wallace are in Lexington.

The federals are fully prepared in case the rebels make an attack.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES.

CAIRO, Aug. 31st.

Dispatches received at headquarters here state that the rebel Morgan is marching on Fort Donnellson, and purposes attacking it. The number of his force is not known.

Memphis advices say that on the 25th Col. Wood attacked 3,000 rebels at Bulwar, completely routing them after a short engagement. Our loss was only one killed.

The rebel steamer Fairplay, captured up the Yazoo river a few days since, has arrived here. Gen. Curtis and staff have attended. The General has leave of absence to attend the Pacific railroad meeting, at Chicago.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.

The following are among the casualties in the recent battles: A. Wallor, Co. C, 2d Wisconsin.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch, dated Sunday, 3 p. m., says the anticipation that a great battle would be fought to day, Sunday, was probably unfounded. No firing has been heard, and no news of a renewal of the contest, except that a telegram dated at Fairfax Station, 10.30 a. m., speaks of heavy firing of guns being heard in the neighborhood of the Hot Station. This is supposed to be the highest quarters here to be the noise caused by the blowing up of his trains by Gen. Banks, who, it is feared, is cut off with his whole corps.

Five hundred rebel prisoners were at Fairfax Station awaiting transportation to Washington. They concur in saying, as does information from all other sources, that the whole rebel army was engaged under Lee's command. Its numbers no one of them set at less than 150,000, and many estimated them at two or three hundred thousand. The prisoners also all say that they were promised an easy and speedy march into Washington. They were certainly to be there within a week.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.

A special dispatch from Washington to Forney's press says: Gen. Patrick Duryea and Tower are slightly wounded; Col. Keltz of 73d Pennsylvania, Lieut. Col. McLean of 88th Pennsylvania, Col. O'Connor of 2d Wisconsin, and Capt. Franklin Shelling of 20th Pennsylvania Zouaves were all killed.

SEASON'S GENERAL OFFICE.

Washington, Aug. 30, 1862.

To the loyal women and children of the United States:

The supply of lint in market is nearly exhausted. The brave men wounded in defense of their country will soon be in want of it. I appeal to you to come to our aid in supplying us with this necessary article. There is scarcely a woman or child who cannot scrape lint, and there is no way in which their assistance can be more useful given than in furnishing us the means to dress the wounds of those who fall in defense of their rights and their homes.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.

The Tribune's correspondent extra, this morning, contains a Washington letter, dated Sunday morning with the following details: Nothing later than Gen. Pope's despatch on Saturday received by the government this morning. Disturbances during Saturday afternoon and late evening. A courier arrived at Halleck's headquarters this morning with the news that Pope had fallen back to Centerville. A staff officer from the battle field at 5 p. m. Saturday, states that the battle commenced on Thursday afternoon.

Sigel's corps engaged the rebel cavalry brigade on the road from Warrenton, and drove them back, the battle lasting till 9.30 in the evening. The fight was with Jackson's rear guard, whose force was estimated at 30,000. Friday morning Jackson undoubtedly formed a junction with Longstreet. Sherman's battery opened the battle Friday morning. Milroy's brigade led the advance, and Sigel turned a line of battle with Schurz on the right, Schenck on the left, and Steinwehr in the center. The rebels were gradually forced back till 1 p. m. They then suddenly and fiercely charged bayonets, forcing Milroy back. Schenck sent a brigade forward, but both were driven back. Milroy's command was so badly cut up that he could not gather a regiment.

Schurz and Steinwehr were holding their own in the woods, on the left of Schenck. Heavy masses of rebels appeared, and Stevens and Reynolds' divisions were sent up, and all were driven back. The result of Friday's fight was, we drove the rebels about two miles, then, being heavily reinforced, recovered a mile, and our troops retired at night a mile in advance of their morning's position. On Saturday the battle was more general. Heintzelman, Porter, McDowell and Banks were engaged. Sigel's force being kept as a reserve.

Heintzelman commenced the attack at ten, with Porter in the center. The advance of the latter was checked by immense masses of infantry, and his troops stood up with unparalleled heroism for over an hour, exposed to an enfilading fire of grape and canister.

The ground was strewn with fallen ranks of dying and dead. They broke, falling back in great disorder, finally, which caused a panic in the reserve, and large numbers joined in the retreat. The rebels rapidly advanced their batteries, pouring in their support, endeavoring to hold the center, but his movements were anticipated and Sigel's corps, developed by the rebels on the left, outnumbered at all points. Then Sigel showed out, bringing up his brigade and successfully to their position, holding them in front while the fugitives poured by. Large bodies of McDowell's troops retreated in great disorder across Bull Run.

At 5 o'clock p. m. the battle was going against us. The last reserves were ordered up to relieve the day, but along the Centerville road artillery, infantry, wagons and cavalry were confusedly falling to the rear. Our right, however, remained comparatively firm, preventing the enemy from following his advantage, and at 8 o'clock Bull Run stream was crossed by the rebels troubling us only by a few shells. We were falling back to Centerville, Franklin's corps between stone bridge and Centerville and Sumner's corps between Centerville and Fairfax Court House pressing on with great speed to the assistance of Pope. The day was probably adverse to us, but the battle was to be renewed on Sunday morning with heavy reinforcements.

It is believed the whole rebel army, under Lee, has joined Jackson, by way of the Thorough Gap, or by Aldie Gap. The above account is gleaned by the Tribune correspondent, and from Capt. Irish.

A later account says, judging from reports from officers, the panic in McDowell's left wing was not very serious. A line of soldiers was drawn up at seven o'clock, Sunday morning, to stop stragglers, but none had appeared. Our camps were then seen on the hill side of Centerville.

Another correspondent says McClellan, Burnside, and Pope's army are now in full co-operation. Complete success is looked for; very confidence is felt at the war department, Halleck's headquarters, and the White House.

A correspondent of Forney's Press, dated near Centerville, last evening says: Last evening McDowell's left flank was turned by a cavalry force 5,000 strong, McDowell's corps being on the left of our army, and the rebel cavalry being supported by infantry. McDowell's entire corps was frightfully cut up. The enemy, according to the reports of prisoners who had been taken, has been reinforced enormously, and includes the entire rebel army of the state of Virginia, and numbering about 250,000 men.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF WISCONSIN.
Executive Office, Madison, Aug. 2, 1892.
Business of great public importance, in my judgment rendering a special session of the Legislature necessary: Therefore,
In pursuance of the authority vested in me by the Constitution of the State, I do hereby call the Legislature of the State of Wisconsin to convene in special session, at Madison, on Wednesday, the 10th day of September, A. D. 1892, at twelve o'clock M.

Volunteers in Rock County for the Old Regiment.

The following is the return made by the sheriff of the number of volunteers furnished by Rock County for the old regiments, after a full comparison and correction of the reports made by the several enrolling officers as the sheriff, in consultation with those officers, could make. There are, however, a few disputed cases of residence which will come before the commissioner for adjudication. The number here returned is largely in excess of that credited the county by the Adjutant General, as determined by the muster rolls. This number reported by the sheriff embraces those who have enlisted in Illinois. Truly, Rock County has done her whole duty.

DEPARTURE OF L. HARTWICK'S COMPANY.

DELEGATES TO THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic meeting in this city, Saturday, appointed Franklin Whitaker, Anson Rogers, John Winans and Joseph A. Wood delegates to the Democratic convention to be held in Milwaukee this week Wednesday. With the exception of Mr. Wood, this is a pretty "steep" dose of the kind of "democracy" represented by the Chicago Times and Milwaukee News.

REASONS FOR DISMANTLING THE COLORED REGIMENT.

—A Milton Hunt correspondent of the New York Tribune says:
"The dismantling of the colored regiment, known as the 1st South Carolina volunteers, by Gen. Hunter, may appear very mysterious, but nothing is capable of a more honest or straightforward solution. Gen. Hunter found that the authorities at Washington persisted steadily in refusing any direct recognition of this organization—thus keeping its men without pay, its officers without commissions, and the whole responsibility of the movement saddled on Gen. Hunter alone."

"Their officers were without commission, and consequently without legitimate authority. Neither men nor officers were amenable to any tribunal, nor to any code of law, military or otherwise. No court martial could take cognizance of any offenses committed by the regiment; and the officers, while wearing the uniform of their nominal grades, were liable to insult and ignominy at the hands of every pro-slavery subaltern, or even private, duly instructed into Uncle Sam's service."

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Rock County will meet in Convention, at the Court House, in West Block, City of Janesville, on Wednesday, the 17th day of September, 1882, at 8 o'clock in the afternoon, to nominate candidates for county officers.

ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.

The Representatives of the towns of Rock, Plymouth, Newark, Spring Valley, and Arco, constituting the 10th Assembly District, are requested to meet delegates from their several towns, to meet at Oshkosh, on Saturday, the 5th inst., at 12 o'clock M., to choose delegates for the Congressional Convention to be held at Watertown, Sept. 24th, to nominate a candidate.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF WISCONSIN. Executive Office, Madison, Aug. 22, 1882.

Business of great public importance, in my judgment rendering a special session of the Legislature necessary: Therefore,

I, the Governor, do hereby call the Legislature of the State of Wisconsin to convene in special session, at Madison, on Wednesday, the 10th day of September, A. D. 1882, at twelve o'clock M.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at Madison, this 22nd day of August, 1882.

By the Governor, EDWARD SALMONSON.

JAMES T. LEWIS, Secretary of State.

Volunteers in Rock County for the O. Regiments.

The following is the return made by the sheriff of the number of volunteers furnished by Rock County for the old regiments, after a full comparison and correction of the reports made by the several enrolling officers as the sheriff, in consultation with those officers, could make. There are, however, a few disputed cases of residences which will come before the commissioners for adjudication. The number here returned is largely in excess of that credited the county by the Adjutant General, as determined by the muster rolls. This number reported by the sheriff embraces those who have enlisted in Illinois. Truly, Rock county has done her whole duty.

We are gratified to learn from the sheriff that all the conflicting claims between this city and the towns in the county have been harmoniously settled.

DEPARTURE OF LT. HARLOW'S COMPANY.

—We are compelled to defer until to-morrow a notice of the departure of this company.

DELEGATES TO THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.—The Democratic meeting in this city, Saturday, appointed Franklin Whitaker, Anson Rogers, John Winans and Joseph A. Wood delegates to the Democratic convention to be held in Milwaukee this week Wednesday. With the exception of Mr. Wood, this is a pretty "steep" dose of the kind of "democracy" represented by the Chicago Times and Milwaukee News.

BLAKELEY'S MELONS.—These staple productions have made their appearance in our market, and can be found at Dearborn's grocery on the east side, and Davis' on the west side of the river. Mr. B. has 16 acres, embracing every good variety raised. He shipped 10,000 last week to Milwaukee and other places.

REASONS FOR DISABLING THE COLORED REGIMENT.—A Hilton Head correspondent of the New York Tribune says:

"The disbandment of the colored regiment, known as the 1st South Carolina, by Gen. Hunter, is a very serious matter, and one which is capable of a more or less straight-forward solution. Gen. Hunter found that the authorities at Washington persisted steadily in refusing any direct recognition of this organization—thus keeping its men without pay, its officers without commissions, and the whole responsibility of the movement saddled on Gen. Hunter alone.

"The officers were without commission, and consequently without legitimate authority. Neither men nor officers were amenable to any tribunal, nor to any code of law, military or otherwise. No court martial could take cognizance of any offenses committed by the regiment; and the officers, while wearing the uniform of their nominal grades, were liable to insult and ignominy at the hands of every pro-slavery subaltern, or even private, duly mustered into Uncle Sam's service."

STATE OF WISCONSIN. Clerk of Circuit Court for Rock County.

OFFICE is hereby given that the filing of the return of the Circuit Court for Rock County, will take place at my office in the city of Janesville, at 10 o'clock in the morning, on Wednesday, the 27th day of September, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, as provided for by statute.

THE Blood is the Life.—No more shall the poor sufferers in our country languish, their constitutions racked and torn by strong and dangerous mineral salts, which will come to the formula of health, found in simple herbs and roots from nature's storehouse.

THE MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS, of innocent vegetable plants, composed, will remove and stop their diseases, and cause the blood, renewed and cleansed, to carry through the body the elements of health; building up the broken constitution, saving life and health, where but for them would have been the work of days—the terrible pain of suffering, at last ended by the cold hand of death. It is not let pride overcome your better reason; do not look upon these Pills as only a cure; do not let your despair, after trying every other remedy, prevent you from trying these. The blood must be pure, and then sickness is impossible. What a great and just simple truth is this! It appears to the common sense of all: it is the great key-note of the healing art. JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will purify and cleanse it as sure as the sun will rise to-morrow.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are sold by all Medicine Dealers.
